

Introduction to Character

1. Describe ways that you have seen character relate to success.
2. What are some of the realities that put the most pressure on your own character?
3. Why do you think we don't talk about character as a business tool more than we do?
4. What are some of the things that you have found helpful to develop your own character and that of the people in your organization?